To Whom It May Concern:

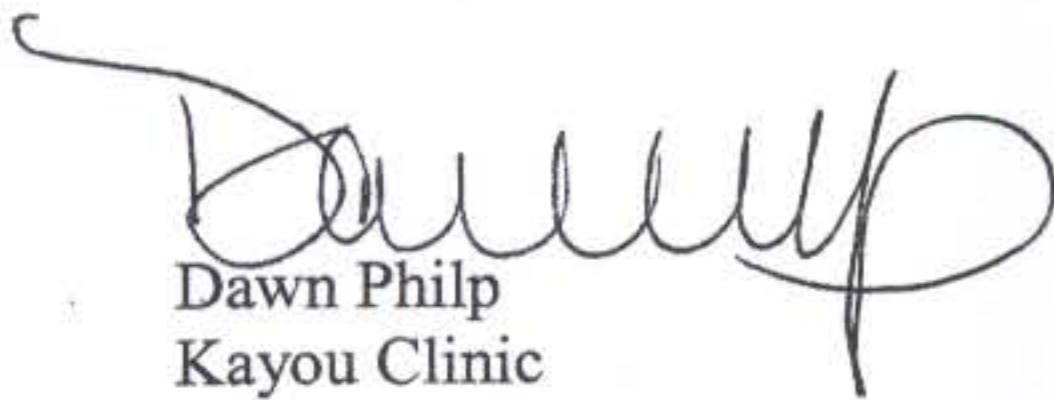

It is with great pleasure that I recommend advertising with Get 1 Free. I have been advertising with them for over two years and we saw a return on our advertising dollars from the first issue. In the normal world of marketing and advertising, it's often hit or miss and difficult to choose an advertising company you can rely on to bring in clients.

Get 1 Free has always displayed a high degree of integrity, responsibility, and dedication regarding our marketing and how they have represented us. They have proven their magazine works issue after issue.

Something we really appreciate is how the staff continues to work with us on new ideas and changes so the ads are always fresh and inviting. The customer service they provide is second to none. I would especially like to single out Ryan Green for his attitude and professionalism. He represents the magazine and our interests extremely well.

Get 1 Free magazine is a must have to any organization, and I am proud to give them my wholehearted endorsement and recommendation.

Sincerely,

Dawn Philp
